

13TH ANNUAL SAINT DEMETRIOS WELCOME SUNDAY OCTOBER 30, 2011

On Sunday, October 30, 2011, the following new members of our St. Demetrios Parish were recognized in Church after the Divine Liturgy, and were honored during coffee hour in the Hermes Center

1. Sherban and Ioana Constandaky

The couple lives in Columbia and have been married for 18 years. Sherban graduated from Fordham University with a degree in Russian language and philosophy, and moved to this area in 1989. He worked for Voice of America, and then for Luftansa Airlines, where he began his career in air freight and retired as a consultant. Ioana graduated from medical school in Bucharest, Hungary, where she practiced medicine for 9 years. She spent many years with the care of her mother-in-law, and now cares for her own father and mother. The couple's main interests are gardening, walking and caring for their cats:

2. Yianni and Sophia Vasilios, and their sons Frankie and Harry:

The family lives in Perry Hall. Yianni graduated from Calvert Hall High School and then from Towson University. He works for the U.S. Department of Energy as a Program Manager. Sophia graduated from Notre Dame Prep High School and then from Loyola College. She is employed in her family's business, Empire Dental Lab, as an Office Manager and Marketing Specialist. The couple met while members of the St. Nicholas GOYA, and have been married for 8 years.

Frankie is 6 years old and attends Gunpowder Elementary School. Harry is 3 years old and is enrolled in the St. Demetrios Day School. The family enjoys children's sports together and traveling, especially vacationing in Ocean City. Yianni has also been participating in the recently formed adult basketball league at the St. Demetrios Hermes Center.
